Campus France is the French national agency in charge of promoting French higher education abroad, managing grants from French and foreign governments and welcoming international students.

The Campus France team has a network of 255 locations and annexes in 124 countries with almost 500 counsellors around the world.

The main mission of Campus France offices is the promotion of French higher education to foreign students and the institutes where they study. We answer questions about French programs, assist foreign students in their administrative formalities and prepare them for their arrival in France.
