General Guidelines

- The conference language is English. The submissions should only be in the name of the student authors who are applying for the peace award.
- The submitted work must be original and bona fide work of the individual.
- All paper submissions will be considered for both spoken paper and poster presentation unless the author specifically requests that the submission only be considered for one or the other.
- Information about paper presentations and poster dimensions & other requirements will be communicated to authors in the acceptance letter.
- Spoken Papers will be allocated 15 mins, including 5 mins for Q & A. Posters will have designated time slots and presentation space assigned in the workshop schedule.
