by

DR. NINA PETEK

University of Ljubljana, Slovenia

Dr Nina Petek, Ph.D. is Asst. Professor at the Department of Philosophy, University of Ljubljana, Slovenia, where she teaches several courses on Asian philosophies and religions. She is the principal investigator of the research project "Buddhism in Himalayan Deserts: the Tradition of Yogis in Ladakh" which focusses on the meditation practices in the Himalayan region. Dr Petek is the director of the Institute for Monastic Studies and Contemplative Sciences, Ljubljana. Currently, she is working on two books: the first on the concept of dreams in Indian philosophy and the second is the translation of Buddhist philosopher Vasubandhu's treatises into Slovene language. She has extensively travelled in the Himalayas and met hermits and yogis practicing reclusively in sub-zero temperatures. It would be interesting to hear her experiences.

The lecture will be followed by Q & A session.
