CALL FOR PAPERS

Jindal Global Law School Insolvency Law (JGILS) WORKING PAPER SERIES is now accepting submissions

JGILS is an open source working paper series conceptualized to create conversation and content between the theory-practice divide that exists in the study of insolvency and bankruptcy law in India. JGILS is structured to increase dialogue between policy, theory, implementation and research; locally and globally. All submissions must be made in accordance with the submissions policy available on: <https://jgu.edu.in/jgls/insolvencylaw/>.

JGILS accepts pre-preprint, in-progress drafts specific to and in the inter-discipline of insolvency and bankruptcy laws. Drafts can be between 7000 words – 15000 words in the form of essays, notes, articles and must be accompanied by short abstracts. Please refer to the writing guidelines on the website for further information.

Submissions must be made by: December 30, 2021

Submissions must be made to: ilwps@jgu.edu.in Submissions must be of full text of papers. Select papers will be requested to present at the JGILS Annual Colloquium.

Past and launchpad papers are available at: <https://jgu.edu.in/jgls/insolvencylaw/>

For inquiries write to: ilwps@jgu.edu.in
