by

DR. FEDERICO AST
CEO and Co-founder of Kleros

BIO OF SPEAKER

Federico Ast graduated in economics and philosophy from the University of Buenos Aires and holds a PhD in management from IAE Business School. He is founder and CEO of Kleros, a legaltech company using game theory and blockchain technology in arbitration. As a pioneer in the field of decentralized justice, he has lectured in universities such as Stanford, Oxford and Columbia. He is an alumni at Singularity University and hosts the first Coursera courses about blockchain and legaltech in Spanish. He is passionate about exponential technologies such as artificial intelligence, crowdsourcing and blockchain for social innovation. He is a TEDx speaker.

ABSTRACT

Kleros is the world's first decentralized court used by blockchain users and businesses for arbitration in their contracts. When a dispute is created, Kleros selects a panel of jurors and sends back a decision backed by blockchain which will insure automatic enforcement. Besides giving a solution to the emerging needs and particularities of the blockchain economy, the concept of Kleros might even revolutionize the future international arbitration framework.
