ELECTIVES

Students are offered a number of elective courses from their third year of study. These courses are often interdisciplinary, involving elements of law as well as other disciplines in social science and management. Successful completion of electives will lead to the awarding of credits, which are ascertained per elective, based on the number of instructional hours. For example, a three credit course will have at least three hours of classroom lectures per week and one or more hours of tutorial instruction per week.

Further, a number of elective courses at the various schools of the University are open for cross-registration. For example, a student of the Jindal School of International Affairs may opt for a course on International Humanitarian Law offered by the Jindal Global Law School. ## FACULTY & THE INTELLECTUAL ENVIRONMENT

The faculty members of JGLS are outstanding scholars and practitioners recruited from around the world representing diversified legal systems, social backgrounds, and national cultures. The most important and defining aspect of legal education that is being offered at JGLS is its ability to bring together some of the most amazing legal minds and scholars in humanities, social sciences and business studies to teach and engage with the students of law in the B.A./B.B.A./B.COM. LL.B. (Hons.), LL.B. (Hons.) LL.M. and Ph.D. programmes. The faculty members of JGLS have educational qualifications from the world's leading universities such as Harvard, Yale, Stanford, Columbia, Cornell, Oxford, Cambridge, King's College London, London School of Economics & Political Science, University of California – Berkeley, UCLA, University of Delhi, and Jawaharlal Nehru University. It is through the intellectual leadership of the faculty members that JGLS has been able to create an academic environment that fosters interdisciplinary learning, a sense of curiosity, clinical legal education and social engagement.

JGLS has over 490+ full-time faculty members from 42 countries who are engaged in teaching, research and capacity building, making it one of the world's leading law schools with a faculty-student ratio of 1:9.

490+ full-time faculty members with approx. 20% non-Indian nationals from the USA, UK, China, Canada, Bulgaria, Iceland and New Zealand.

With one of the Largest Faculty in Asia
including alumni from leading universities like Harvard, Oxford, Yale and Stanford

RESEARCH & KNOWLEDGE CREATION

JGLS has established over 25 Research Centres that aim to generate a global network of minds bent on solving leading legal and policy questions in key areas, like Global Corporate and Financial Law & Policy; Women, Law and Social Change; Penology, Criminal Justice and Police Studies; Human Rights Studies; International Trade and Economic Laws; Global Governance and Policy; Health Law, Ethics and Technology; Intellectual Property & Technology Law; Public Law and Jurisprudence; Environment and Climate Change Studies; South Asian Legal Studies; International Legal Studies; Victimology and Psychological Studies; and Clinical Legal Programmes.

CURRICULUM & INTERDISCIPLINARY COURSES

JGLS has created opportunity for its students to pursue global legal education through a curriculum and pedagogy that best reflects the study of international law, comparative law and foreign law along with domestic law. JGLS students receive instruction in areas such as Advanced Corporate Law, Alternative Dispute Resolution, IPR & Economics, International Investment Law, Labour and Industrial Law and Taxation and Property Law. In addition, student electives include highly relevant areas such as Competition Law, Futures and Options, Global Financial Markets, Infrastructure Law and Finance, the Law of the WTO and the Law and Economics of Trade Remedy Actions.

The students of JGLS have a unique opportunity to be part of a larger university that promotes interdisciplinary study of a range of courses across the schools of business, international affairs, public policy, liberal arts and humanities. This is done by cross-registration of over 90 courses that students can choose to study from different schools of JGU. A unique feature of education at JGLS is the interconnectedness of the study of law and business or law and social sciences.

- Jindal Global Law Review (JGLR), the flagship journal of JGLS published by Springer is indexed in the LexisNexis legal database and is among top 200 refereed law journals in the world as per the Washington & Lee Law Review Rankings.

CONFERENCES, SEMINARS & PUBLIC LECTURES

JGLS is active in hosting conferences, seminars and public lectures on some of the most important issues related to law, society and business. These conferences are led by faculty initiatives under the aegis of the various research centres. Knowledge creation through dialogue and discourse has been the most fundamental source of academic inspiration throughout history. Joint conferences, symposia and workshops enable researchers, faculty and even students of JGLS to come together and discuss wide-ranging topics on a decided theme. This not only helps to build a strong multi-jurisdictional or inter-institutional dialogue, but also enables critical perspectives to develop from the 'meeting of minds.' JGLS has been mindful of the benefits that such exercises bring knowledge creation, and has therefore partnered with several law schools around the world to produce an intellectually stimulating environment for research.

JGLS is also conscious that the conferences should not merely act as a discursive event, but should translate into some form of publication or research project, so as to disseminate the research that the conference explores.

Joint Conferences

with International Universities and law schools like Harvard, Cornell, Columbia, Michigan, Yale, Indiana, Oxford, Cambridge, etc.

Joint Academic Events

with leading Indian institutions like JNU, NLSIU, NLU Delhi, Indian Law Institute, etc.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENT EXCHANGE PROGRAMMES

JGLS has established international collaborations with law schools around the world, including Harvard, Yale, Columbia, Michigan, Cornell, UC Berkeley. Each year, eligible students to spend a semester at Universities across the globe including UC Davis, Indiana, Oxford, Cambridge, King's College, Queen Mary, Brooklyn Law School, Mississippi College School of Law, FGV Direito Rio, FGV Direito SP Science Po, Singapore Management University, University of Southampton, University of New England, Leeds University, Tilburg University, Melbourne Law School, Tsinghua University, Bond University, East China University of Political Science and Law, University of Comillas, KOC University, School of Law City University Hong Kong, Temple University, Osgoode Hall Law School, University of Baltimore School of Law, EBS University, The Buchmann Faculty of Law Tel Aviv University, National Taiwan University College of Law, IE Law School, Queen's University, Bucerius Law School, Esade Law School, University of Illinois.

These law schools from around the globe also send their students to study at JGLS for a semester as part of these student exchange arrangements. Study periods spent abroad not only enrich students' lives in the academic and professional fields, but can also improve language learning, intercultural skills, self-reliance and self-awareness.

This experience gives students a better sense of what it means to be a global citizen. In addition, many employers value such exposure, which increases the students' employability and job prospects. In some cases, credits earned during the exchange semester may count towards an LL.M. degree pursued after graduation at the same institution. The programme is highly subsidized from the perspective of an Indian student since students continue to pay for their tuition at home law school, and only bear costs of travel and living expenses abroad.

Semester abroad at world's leading universities and law schools.

Students from leading foreign universities study a semester at JGLS.

No extra cost except travel and accommodation in partner institution.

INTERNATIONAL SUMMER SCHOOLS AT THE WORLD'S LEADING UNIVERSITIES

JGLS offers Jindal-Oxford Summer School in International Law and Global Governance (JOSS) as a three-week intensive residential program every year. The Summer School provides students with the opportunity to be taught by some of the world's leading experts in International Law and Global Governance and experience the unique Oxford tutorial system of learning. Students reside and study at the beautiful Somerville College, University of Oxford. JGLS also offers the Harvard Summer School on Human Rights and Development for its students who get an opportunity to study for three weeks at Harvard University.

EBS Law Summer is another important initiative for JGLS students suited to all levels of expertise in EU Law. Students may choose from 6 different electives, each dealing with detailed questions of European Business and Commercial Law. JGLS students are also eligible to participate in the Law Schools Global League summer school, hosted in a different country and on a different theme each year. Over the past few years this programme has been hosted by law schools in destinations as diverse as Lisbon, Istanbul, Cape Town and Chicago. In addition, during the winter break, JGLS student can travel to Australia to participate in short-term programmes organized by the law schools of the University of Melbourne and Murdoch University.

INTERNATIONAL HIGHER EDUCATION OPPORTUNITIES

JGLS has inked historic Memoranda of Understandings (MoUs) with prominent American universities to establish double-degree programmes. Through these programmes, students will be able to earn an LL.B. (Hons.) from JGLS and a J.D. from the partner American University, in as much as two years less time than it would otherwise take, if they were to pursue these degrees sequentially. This reduction of two years does not in any way affect the rigorousness of the course, and students get two separate degrees of LL.B. (Hons.) and J.D. in four years. This is done through extended exchange frameworks and credit transfers.

The three universities with which we currently have this arrangement are: Cornell University, Indiana University Bloomington, Maurer School of Law and University of Arizona, James E. Rogers College of Law. Both these institutions offer generous scholarships to JGLS students in the past.

NATIONAL AND INTERNATIONAL INTERNSHIPS & PLACEMENTS

The Office of Career Services (OCS) at JGLS requires and assists students in pursuing at least one 4-week internship during each of their term-break during summer and winter. Such internships are pursued by our students in a variety of organizations and institutions both within and outside the justice administration system. The internship program at JGLS is designed and administered with a vision of broadening the horizon of career opportunities that students are able to seek post completion their of legal education, ensuring that all the students can leverage on the internship program towards fulfilling their diverse career aspirations. Students are guided from their first day at the law school to understand the kind of internships they should be working towards and hand-holding is provided in understanding nuts and bolts of securing and succeeding in such internships.

The OCS also supports JGLS students in securing internships in their home towns and various cities around India through large database of recruiter contacts regularly maintained to ensure availability of diverse internships to cater to each students' specific needs and requirements. JGLS students also receive mentorship in building their recruiter contacts and developing necessary soft and hard skills by becoming student representatives at OCS, thereby gaining an edge in furthering their career objectives.
