Corruption Allegations in International Arbitration

SPEAKER

PROF. YARIK KRYVOI

Lawyer and Academic
Specialized in International and Comparative law

BIO OF THE SPEAKER

Prof. Yarik Kryvoi is a London-based legal academic and practitioner specialising in international arbitration, investment law, and comparative legal studies. He is Senior Fellow in International Economic Law and Director of the Investment Treaty Forum at the British Institute of International and Comparative Law (BIICL), Of Counsel at Keidan Harrison LLP, and Co-Director of the Arbitration Lab. Professor Kryvoi has acted in commercial and investor-state disputes, advised governments on investment and rule-of-law reforms, and published extensively on arbitration, international law, and legal education. He is also a leading innovator in legal education, having designed and directed advanced training programmes, online courses, and international arbitration schools that attract participants from across the world. Originally from Belarus, he holds a PhD from University College London and an LL.M. from Harvard Law School.
